

GRIGORE OMELCENCO

Full stack Developer

Summary:

I am well aware of how to use React Hook and other add-ons like redux tools, etc. To write an application, I can also write an api server with Node. I want to learn more about TypeScript and Jest in order to improve my code quality in React. I am looking for an interesting job as a full stack developer in a thriving and exciting company developing my skills like a grove with a team.
